

To Confer on Commerce Statistics.
Secretary Redfield of the Department of Commerce, Dr. E. E. Pratt, chief of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, and Representative Claude B. Kitchin, chairman of the House ways and means committee, are scheduled to hold a conference Friday to determine the assistance which can be given to the ways and means committee by the "cost of production division" of the foreign and domestic commerce bureau.

"Millions for Defense but not one cent for tribute"

The ringing words of Pinckney, more than a century ago, will be echoed in the 64th Congress which convenes in WASHINGTON in December. Not since the Civil War has Congress been called upon for such vast appropriations as it will be this winter.

More than $500,000,000 will be asked for the Navy to be used in the next five years. Millions more for the Army and more millions for the Panama Canal and general preparedness.

It will be a busy winter in WASHINGTON!

Big sums accomplish big things.
The BALTIMORE & OHIO spent $100,000,000 in four years for the betterment of its lines, or $10,000 an hour for every working day of eight hours. Lines were straightened, grades reduced, roadbed rebuilt, new ALL-STEEL EQUIPMENT FOR THROUGH PASSENGER TRAINS purchased, greatly increasing efficiency in service.

WILLIAM J. ACKER DEAD; FUNERAL SERVICES TODAY

Was Long Associated With Business and Fraternal Interests of Washington.

William J. Acker, sixty-five years old, long associated with the business and fraternal interests of Washington, died Sunday, at his home, 913 16th street northwest. Funeral services, attended by members of the Association of the Oldest Inhabitants and members of the Masonic fraternity, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Trinity Episcopal Church, 3d and C street northwest. Interment was private.

Mr. Acker was the son of the late Nicholas and Sarah E. Acker. His life was actively bound up with the interest of the National Capital. For a number of years he had been engaged in the building business.

A graduate of the law department of George Washington University, Mr. Acker was a member of the District bar. He formerly was a staff officer of the Washington Light Infantry. He was a member of the Sigma Chi Fraternity and a member of Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, F. A. M., of La Fayette Chapter, No. 5, and of Washington Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templar. He was a past master of Lebanon Lodge, a member of the Association of the Oldest Inhabitants.

Two sons are living, Kemp G. Acker and Dr. George N. Acker.

TURKISH DESTROYER SUNK BY A BRITISH SUBMARINE

LONDON, December 7.—The Turkish torpedo boat destroyer Yavuz has been sunk in the Sea of Marmara by a British submarine, it is announced in a British official statement. A supply steamer and four sailing vessels also were destroyed by the submarine December 3 and 4.

The term "alcoholic liquors" defined to include all spirituous, vinous, malt or fermented liquors, and all other liquors which shall contain one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol or more.

Provides penalty for violations of the provisions of this section, fine of $300 to $1,000 and imprisonment from thirty days to one year.

Provides penalties for violations of the provisions of this section, fine of $100 to $500, and imprisonment from thirty days to six months.

Wholesale druggists desiring to deal in alcohol for mechanical or scientific purposes must be licensed by the District Commissioners, paying a fee of $25 for one year, the Commissioners to make regulations governing the sale of alcohol for such purposes.

Provides that wholesale druggists selling alcohol, or ministers, pastors or priests desiring wine for sacramental purposes, may import alcohol or wine after obtaining a permit from the District Commissioners for the purpose.

Strict Rules for Carriers.
Makes it unlawful for any carrier to deliver any prohibited liquors in the District of Columbia at any time, or

LIQUOR UNDER BAN IF BILL IS PASSED

Absolute Prohibition for D. C. in Measure Introduced by Senator Sheppard.

EXPECTS IT TO BECOME LAW AT THIS SESSION

Provides Stringent Regulations and Severe Penalties for Those Who Violate Them.

Absolute prohibition for the District of Columbia is provided in a bill introduced today by Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas, leading advocate of prohibition in the Senate. Senator Sheppard said today that he intended to press this bill, and that he expected it would become a law at the present session of Congress.

An analysis of the measure shows the following provisions:

Analysis of the Bill.
Prohibits the manufacture, sale, storing, offering for sale, keeping for sale, soliciting or receiving orders for the purchase of alcoholic liquors, the giving away or importing the same.

Prohibits the manufacture, sale, storing, offering for sale, keeping for sale, soliciting or receiving orders for the purchase of alcoholic liquors, the giving away or importing the same.

Provides that if a tenant of a building uses it in maintaining a common nuisance, or permits it to be so used by another, the lease of the building shall become void and the right of possession reverts to the owner.

Provides that the owner of a building, or a building under his control, shall, after the passage of this act, be deemed a common nuisance, take all reasonable measures to eject the person using such building, failure to do so renders him liable for assisting in maintaining a nuisance.

Provides that there shall be no property rights in liquors illegally manufactured, received, possessed or stored and such liquors are contraband and subject to seizure by the police for wife or other person injured in person or property or means of support by an intoxicated person, or for the purpose of intoxication by selling or otherwise furnishing alcoholic liquors.

For Protection of Public.
Makes it an offense to operate any locomotive engine, any train, street car, or any other vehicle, or to operate a vehicle while in an intoxicated condition; penalty, fine of from $25 to $300, and in case of default, imprisonment from thirty days to six months.

Places the responsibility of enforcing the law on the police force of the District, who shall detail members of the police force to detect violations of the law, and shall report to the corporation counsel, who shall diligently prosecute all offenders; provides penalty for failure upon part of any officer to enforce the law, fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 and forfeiture of office.

Further provides that any official referred to in the section who is negligent in his duty to enforce the provisions of the act may be removed from office.

Provides that prosecutions of offenders shall be in the Police Court by the corporation counsel upon sworn information; but authorizes the Commissioners to prosecute through the office of the United States district attorney for the District of Columbia when it appears to the Commissioners that in the interest of better enforcement of the law, offenders shall be presented to the grand jury, and if indicted, tried in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

Provides that if any part of the act shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid the remainder of the act shall not be affected thereby.

Provides that words of the singular number shall include their plurals and words of the masculine gender shall include the feminine, as the case may be.

Provides that the act shall go into effect the first day of November 1916 (the end of the present session year) and replace all inconsistent laws.

legal shipments of alcohol or wine, except between the hours of 6 a.m. and 5 p.m., and not on Sunday.

Provides for "search and seizure." Provisions for pleading. Not necessary to prove the kind of liquor kept or sold, delivered, etc. Evidence of having or keeping liquors in hand, etc., is sufficient to convict.

Prohibits drinking liquors in the public streets, on street cars or other public conveyances, including railroad trains. Makes it an offense to be intoxicated on streets, or in street cars, railroad coaches, or in any public place or building or at any public gathering, or to disturb the peace of any person while intoxicated anywhere. Penalties, fine from $10 to $100, or imprisonment for not less than five days or more than thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment.

The payment of the special tax required of wholesale or retail liquor dealers by the United States is made prima facie evidence of violations of the act.

Makes Them Public Nuisances.
Provides that all buildings, club-rooms, drug stores and other places where alcoholic liquors are manufactured, stored, sold, etc., contrary to the provisions of the act, shall be deemed common and public nuisances.

Penalties. Fine of $500 to $1,000 and imprisonment from thirty days to one year, and, in addition, judgment shall be given that such room, place or building shall be abated or closed as a nuisance for sale or keeping of liquors contrary to law.

Provides against keeping or selling liquors in clubs, by any system or device whatever. Prohibits the "locker system" and holds all persons connected with a club responsible. Prohibits advertising or prohibited alcoholic liquors in any manner in the District of Columbia.

Penalty, fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500.

Provides that the United States district attorney for the District of Columbia, or any citizen of the District, may maintain an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin such nuisance as defined in previous section.

Provides Right of Injunction.
Provides that the right of injunction may be employed to prevent the violation of provisions of the act as in case of liquor nuisances.

Provides that if a tenant of a building uses it in maintaining a common nuisance, or permits it to be so used by another, the lease of the building shall become void and the right of possession reverts to the owner.

Provides that the owner of a building, or a building under his control, shall, after the passage of this act, be deemed a common nuisance, take all reasonable measures to eject the person using such building, failure to do so renders him liable for assisting in maintaining a nuisance.

Provides that there shall be no property rights in liquors illegally manufactured, received, possessed or stored and such liquors are contraband and subject to seizure by the police for wife or other person injured in person or property or means of support by an intoxicated person, or for the purpose of intoxication by selling or otherwise furnishing alcoholic liquors.

For Protection of Public.
Makes it an offense to operate any locomotive engine, any train, street car, or any other vehicle, or to operate a vehicle while in an intoxicated condition; penalty, fine of from $25 to $300, and in case of default, imprisonment from thirty days to six months.

Places the responsibility of enforcing the law on the police force of the District, who shall detail members of the police force to detect violations of the law, and shall report to the corporation counsel, who shall diligently prosecute all offenders; provides penalty for failure upon part of any officer to enforce the law, fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500 and forfeiture of office.

Further provides that any official referred to in the section who is negligent in his duty to enforce the provisions of the act may be removed from office.

Provides that prosecutions of offenders shall be in the Police Court by the corporation counsel upon sworn information; but authorizes the Commissioners to prosecute through the office of the United States district attorney for the District of Columbia when it appears to the Commissioners that in the interest of better enforcement of the law, offenders shall be presented to the grand jury, and if indicted, tried in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

Provides that if any part of the act shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid the remainder of the act shall not be affected thereby.

Provides that words of the singular number shall include their plurals and words of the masculine gender shall include the feminine, as the case may be.

Provides that the act shall go into effect the first day of November 1916 (the end of the present session year) and replace all inconsistent laws.

300 BULGAR MUTINEERS EXECUTED, LONDON HEARS

LONDON, December 7, 12:34 p.m.—An unconfirmed report of the mutiny of a Bulgarian infantry regiment, received in Amsterdam from Frankfurt, was forwarded today by the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company.

This report is to the effect that the regiment was ordered to proceed to the Gallipoli peninsula to fight with the Turks, and that when it refused to obey the command 300 of the mutineers were shot.

Opening of Duma Postponed.
PETROGRAD, via London, December 7.—Emperor Nicholas has issued a rescript postponing indefinitely the opening of the duma and the council of the empire. This action is taken on the ground that the budget committees of those bodies have not yet completed the preparation of the budget.
